

the answers to your questions

Learning Communities

what is Learning
Communities

Learning Communities

is your answer to finding out what you want to learn,
where to find that learning and the support resources
in your community
to help make your dreams and goals
come true.

what other opportunities are available

FLEXIBILITY

Discover learning opportunities in your community. Create a learning schedule that suits you and your lifestyle.

SUPPORT

Work with people you know and trust from your community, people who know how to get you where you want to go and who will be with you every step of the way.

OPENNESS

Learning Communities is open to everyone, whether you want to know how to achieve your educational goals or to discover what your dreams are.

ACCESS

Everything from career planning resources, preparation programs and previous learning accreditation to hundreds of online learning opportunities are available to discover on the Learning Communities website.

www.learning-communities.ca

There are two ways to take advantage of Learning Communities:

1. Contact the community coordinator in your area to find out about
 - available learning opportunities
 - how to access those learning opportunities
 - how you can become involved
2. Consider joining the Aboriginal Mentor Circle program
 - to help you discover what your dreams and goals are
 - to help you realize those goals
 - to help you connect with others who are interested in your field of study, your career or your educational goals

Check out the Learning Communities interactive website

www.learning-communities.ca

- Find out about information online, to help you make career choices.
- Find out about online learning programs that are available to you right in your community.
- Find out about mentors that will support and help you reach your goals, online and in your community.
- Find out about news and events, workshops and programs in your community and in your province that match with your interests, wishes and goals.

And so much more.

how can I contribute to Learning
Communities

To get involved talk to the Community Coordinator in your area; about signing up for the Aboriginal Mentor Circle program.

- about online and distance resources, programs and career information
- about community events, workshops and presentations that will help you learn about learning opportunities in your community
- about help with funding, registration and applications

who is involved with Learning
Communities

Learning Communities and the Aboriginal Mentor Circle Program are provided with the support of the Rural Alberta Development Fund, Alberta-North and Alberta colleges, universities, businesses and industry.

Learning Communities is working with Alberta communities to create awareness and support and easy and flexible access to innovative learning opportunities to foster community development.

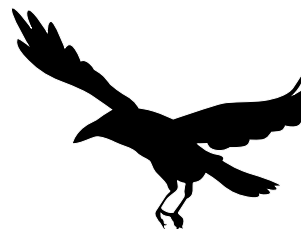

Let's get started!

Phone: 1-877-539-2454

Email: info@learning-communities.ca

Website: www.learning-communities.ca

www.learning-communities.ca

we are all connected.

Bigstone Cree Nation

Metis Settlement General Council

Little Red River Cree Nation

Athabasca Tribal Council

Learning Communities

Bringing learning opportunities to you

Learning Communities is here to support you in your learning interests, dreams and goals, to help you to live the life you want and to support the community you want to live in while making your learning goals a reality.

www.learning-communities.ca

Email: info@learning-communities.ca

Phone: 1-403-613-4033 or

Toll-free: 1-877-593-2454